

DETAILED HOTEL INFORMATION

spyns

Choosing the right hotels has become a bit of a science with the Spyns team. Before you even put head to pillow, the hotel has been contacted, visited, photographed and sometimes even filmed. You plan to cross an ocean to travel with us so the least we could do is check your room's mattress (and bathroom, shower pressure, WIFI, swimming pool etc).

Days 1-3 (Saint Arcons, Auvergne)

Relais & Chateaux Deux Abbesses

15 rooms / most recent stay 2005

A member of the prestigious Relais & Chateaux group, les Deux Abbesses is former nunnery. The hotel is a series of luxury rooms located in various houses in the hilltop village of Saint Arcons. Expertly managed by our friend Laurence, service, restaurant and swimming pool are all world-class. The village setting, excellent riding, and close proximity to some light adventure activities such as hiking and canyoning made les Deux Abbesses the perfect choice.

Days 4-6 (Montagnole, Alps)

Chateau Saint Peres

15 rooms / most recent stay 2009

Driving up to the les Saint Peres is one of life's pinch-me moments. Nestled in the French Alps, this luxury hotel recently completed a multi-million dollar renovation and the results are spectacular. Rooms are 18th century inspired but with 21st century amenities like flat screen TVs, and modern decor. All of this within a short helo flight to the stage at Alpes d'Huez.

Days 7-9 (Paris) Hotel Westin

150 rooms / most recent stay 2010

Since 2003, we've scoured Paris for the perfect TDF finish hotel. Mission accomplished! With 190 rooms, it's a grand luxury hotel with the best location: along the finish route, across the street from the Louvre, 1 block away from the Seine, and 3 blocks from the Champs Elysees. Rooms, service and amenities are all of the highest quality but what makes Hotel Westin exceptional are the views: right over the Rue de Rivoli and finish course. It's also just blocks from the Paris grandstand.
